

VALUE OF KANSAS CROPS.

The Secretary of Agriculture of Kansas estimates value of crops of that State in 1920 at $699,170,341, and value of livestock at $233,250,000.

The year 1920 stands first in total volume of production and second in money value. In wheat Kansas again outyielded the two States, ranking second and third combined.

Men Who Have Foot Troubles

Time was when a comfort shoe, strictly so, had little style. But here is a combination wide-toe shoe with a narrow heel—yet it has real style and character. It has a snug thin instep and it fits around the bottom and top of the heel. Men who have been compelled to wear high shoes can now have perfect comfort and fit in oxfords.

Shown in a variety of leathers in both oxfords and shoes. Strong, long-lasting sole, beautifully stitched.

BIRTH CONTROL IS
RAPPED BY D. A. R.Protest Against "Shameless
Race Suicide" Propaganda
Voiced in Resolutions.

Efforts for the release of Capt. Emmett Kilpatrick, of the Red Cross, who is held prisoner by the Bolsheviks, was demanded today by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Acting at the request of representatives of women's patriotic organizations of Mobile, Ala., D. A. R. will appeal to Congress to take immediate steps leading to Kilpatrick's release.

Reforms at Ellis Island were demanded by the D. A. R. in a resolution adopted today. The resolution urges an appropriation to install new sanitary plumbing and water supplies around the island, and demands adequate facilities for women with babies, to wash and dry clothes, and asks special care and comfort for old people who are detained at the island, the Indian Institute at Wichita, Kan., and protested against the importation of opium among the Indians.

Deploring the "tendency to confusion in public gatherings during singing and playing of 'The Star-Spangled Banner' by donning wraps," the D. A. R. adopted a resolution protesting against this "apparent irreverence" and pledging that each Daughter would stand throughout the rendition of the anthem. The organization also indorsed the bill before Congress to make "The Star-Spangled Banner" the national anthem.

President Harding's Pan-American policy is indorsed and the President congratulated on the ratification of the Colombian treaty in another resolution.

Protests against "shameless race-control propaganda" is urged in a resolution introduced by Kathryn Smyth Johnson, of Pasadena, Cal., who presented a resolution urging the Daughters to increase the birth rate of the country.

Delegates are balloting today to select eight vice presidents general and a registrar general. Those nominated for the offices of vice presidents general are: Mrs. John Briggs Moss, St. Louis; Mrs. Benjamin D. Heath, Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. Albert L. Calder, 2d, Providence, R. I.; Mrs. Alethea Serpell, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. J. Charles Linthicum, Baltimore; Mrs. Lyman E. Holden, Brattleboro, Vt.; Mrs. Singleton M. Ashenfelter, Silver City, N. Mex.; Miss Catherine Campbell, Kansas; and Mrs. Howard L. Hodgkins, Washington.

Miss Emma T. Strider is the only candidate for the office of registrar general.

But They Elope

Dan Cupid Scores Bullseye With Fairfax County, Va., Couple.

The little, plump, unclothed person who goes around carrying a bundle of arrows, and who answers to the name of Cupid, is no respecter of ages. He shoots his love darts into the hearts of the rich and the poor, the young and the old.

But Charles Webster Walker, sixty-three, and Mrs. Rebecca D. Seaton, sixty-one, both of Fairfax county, Va., say they are young, representing a reflection on their ages. Yesterday they eloped to Maryland's green, the thriving little township of Rockville, Montgomery county, and declared their desires of sailing on the sea of matrimony.

Clerk Ray issued the marriage license and a few minutes later the Virginia couple were wedded by the Rev. J. W. Duffey, pastor of the Rockville Methodist Church. Walker, the third to fall for the feminine charms of Mrs. Seaton.

Nevertheless, Cupid has his troubles. Apparently his love darts have pierced the hearts of pretty Sarah Elizabeth and Stewart F. Richards, son and daughter of Mrs. Stewart F. Richards, of Mt. Ranier, Prince George's county. Not strange? Well, Mrs. Richards is determined to frustrate his attempts to steal her daughter and son from the family bedside.

Yesterday Mrs. Richards wrote Clerk Preston Ray, of the Circuit Court of Montgomery county, not to issue marriage licenses to either Sarah or Stewart whom she suspects have fallen to the wiles of Cupid and who intend to elope to Rockville to wed.

G. W. J. GIRLS PLAN
DEBATING CONTESTWill Meet Speakers From Ohio
Wesleyan In Double Event
April 30.

Girl debaters at George Washington University are negotiating for a contest in the near future with Ohio Wesleyan University. The girls will take part in a double debate with the University of West Virginia on Saturday evening, April 30, and they are anxious that one of their teams visit Ohio before returning from the debating trip.

One of the West Virginia debates will take place at 8 o'clock at the Public Library here and the other at Morristown, W. Va. at the same time.

The subject of both debates will be: "Resolved, That the legislatures of the several States should enact laws to provide for establishment in each of one or more courts of industrial relations similar to the Kansas court."

The George Washington team that debates here will take the affirmative side and the one that goes to Morristown will uphold the negative.

The affirmative team will be composed of Misses Helen Carlson, Sarah Tligham and Catherine Gayle. The negative team will be composed of Mrs. Edith Archey and the Misses Kathleen Duggan and Filmore "Willie" The alternative Misses Lillian Audas and Marion Holliday.

Gilbert L. Hall, attorney and graduate of the university law school, is coach of the teams. Clarence Miller, also an attorney and graduate of the law school, is making arrangements for the debates. It is planned to have women as presiding officers and judges.

FLIERS HERE AFTER
4,842-MILE FLIGHT

Marine Corps Aviators Land Today, Completing Air Trip From Alaska.

A flight of 4,842 miles from Washington to Santo Domingo and return was completed today this morning when two marine corps airplanes landed at the naval air station.

This flight, the most remarkable since four army airplanes completed a round-trip flight from Washington to Alaska, began March 29, and was for the purpose of blazing a trail over the route flown and to demonstrate the ease with which airplanes could be concentrated in case of emergency.

The planes were in command of Major Thomas C. Turner, director of marine corps aviation.

On their return trip the two planes were met at Fayetteville, N. C., yesterday by an escort of three planes from Quantico, Va., the first returning to Washington together this morning.

The fliers were greeted upon their arrival by Maj. Gen. John A. LeJeune, commandant of the marine corps; Maj. Gen. Wendell C. Neville, U. S. M. C.; Capt. William A. Moffet, chief of naval aviation; Brig. Gen. William C. Mitchell, assistant chief of the army aviation service; and a large number of army, navy and marine corps aviation officers.

The long flight was made without incident, the original DeHavilland planes and motors being used throughout, and the only mishap during the entire trip was a stripped timing gear on one of the planes, which was repaired at Miami.

FINGER PRINTS CAUSE
JANITOR'S ARREST
IN THEFT

Finger-prints on a tin box from which $1.45 was taken last Monday at the new Scottish Rite Temple, Sixteenth and S streets, resulted in the arrest of Howard J. Jackson, a colored assistant janitor formerly employed there. Another charge involving $150 stolen from the temple last October will probably be made against Jackson. Detective Bradley said today. The negro was held in bond yesterday on the minor charge for the action of the grand jury.

GLUCK REPUDIATES
HIS OWN TESTIMONYStar Witness for Government in Bond Case Now Says He Wasn't 'Paid' in Tombs.

Subjected to a grilling cross-examination today when he took the witness stand, Joe Gluck, confessed thief of more than $5,000,000 worth of Liberty bonds and negotiable securities, and star witness for the Government in its case against "Nicky" Arnstein and co-defendants on trial in District Supreme Court, repudiated the stenographic report of testimony he gave at the previous trial of the defendants.

Attest, David D. Sullivan, Nick Cohn, Wilen W. Easterday, and Norman S. Bowles are on trial for alleged conspiracy to bring the stolen securities into the District for negotiation in the financial district. More than $500,000 worth of the stolen securities were sold here.

"Did you ever see David W. Sullivan, one of the defendants, at the Pennsylvania station in New York?" asked Attorney T. Morris Wampler, chief counsel for the defendants, who conducted the cross-examination.

"No," Gluck replied.

"Did you not testify you saw him with Arnstein and Cohn at the station when you were on the witness stand at the last trial here?" Wampler shouted.

"No," rejoined the witness.

"Did Sol Myers, of the National Surety Company, pay you a weekly sum while you were in the Tombs?" asked Wampler.

"He did not," replied the witness, whereupon Attorney Wampler read from the stenographic reports of the last trial that Gluck had testified receiving "the" weekly sum, and now then a dollar or two for supper.

Many other statements credited to Gluck in the stenographic reports of the last trial were repudiated by the witness. He said that he did not know a court reporter took his testimony at the last trial.

With Gluck branding statements credited to him in the stenographic reports of the last trial as "absolutely false," the defense believes it scores the victory of the day. There was scarcely one statement made by Gluck in the first trial which he in its entirety acknowledged as true.

PASTOR CALLS D. A. R.
ACTION HYPOCRISYRev. Francis X. Murphy at Irish
Meeting Scores Invitation
Given Geddes.

"The address of Mrs. George Maynard Minor, president of the Daughters of the American Revolution on the Irish question at the opening session of the convention of the organization last Monday was an insult to the patriotism of 1776 and to the forefathers of the American Revolution," declared the Rev. Francis X. Murphy, in an address last night to the Abraham Lincoln Council, American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, at a meeting held at 1731 I street northwest.

"Banned de Valera, president of the Irish Republic is pursuing the same patriotic course laid down by George Washington," said Father Murphy, "and the inviting of the British ambassador to speak at the convention was nothing more or less than hypocrisy."

Reports of the Chicago convention were given by the Rev. John J. Callahan, of St. Matthew's Church; E. C. Nune and C. C. McHugh. Mr. McHugh discussed the organization of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic in Colorado, Wyoming and Utah.

William J. Claret made a report for the committee lobbying to obtain passage of the bill on recognition of the Irish Republic. Miss Mary O'Toole presided at the meeting.

CHINESE HELD, OPIUM
SEIZED IN AVENUE RAID

Two gallons of "yen shee," three pipes and opium from which 500 "pills" could be made were confiscated yesterday afternoon at 325 Pennsylvania avenue in a raid by Detectives Evans and Sanders.

Sam and James Lee, Chinese, sixty-two and fifty-five years old, respectively, were arrested and charged with violating the Harrison drug act. They furnished bond and were released.

3-YEAR-OLD BOY BITTEN
BY DOG WHILE AT PLAY

Douglas McCoy, three years old, 1908 Belmont road northwest, was playing in the yard in the rear of his house this morning, when he was attacked by a dog who bit on the right hand. The animal, the police say, is owned by James A. Cahill, 2319 Wyoming avenue northwest.

The boy's wound was treated at the army dispensary. His condition is not serious.

HAYS INAUGURATES
P. O. RADIO SERVICENew System Will Carry Daily
Market Reports to Farmers.

The sending of a radiogram "to the American public" by Postmaster General Hays marked the inauguration this morning of a nation-wide postoffice radio system.

The system, comprising fifteen large stations in a belt extending from the Capital to the Pacific coast, was built in connection with the airmail service.

Daily market reports prepared by the Bureau of Markets will be sent out several times daily to farmers of the country through these stations, as will daily weather reports for farmers and aviators.

The inaugural ceremonies which took place at 10:30 o'clock this morning in the Washington station, room 810-B, Postoffice Department, were attended by the Postmaster General, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, Dr. Charles E. Marvin, chief of the Weather Bureau; W. C. Wheeler, chief of the Bureau of Markets; Dr. Samuel Stratton, director of the Bureau of Standards, and a number of Government scientists and bureau heads.

The Postmaster General's message announced the sending of the market and weather reports as a daily schedule. J. C. Edgerton is chief of the service.
